Veterans at Ease

BECAUSE MILITARY MINDS MATTER

Registered Charity No: 1140832

My Life. My Legacy.

Your Will is one of the most important legal documents you can make. But it does not have to be complicated or frightening.

Along with some plain-speaking legal advice from your solicitor, this little guide will help to get your Will sorted in no time.

ALREADY HAVE A WILL?

Great. If you already have a Will and want to leave a legacy gift to Veterans at Ease, all you have to do is make a 'Codicil' or amendment.

Speak to your solicitor about making a simple amendment to your existing Will, and they will guide you through it.

Mine to Give

You will be surprised how much you have to leave when you start to note it all down. There will be some treasured possessions that will mean a lot to loved ones. And of course the more practical financial support that could give your family and friends a little security.

So make a list of everything you own – giving an approximate value for each item.

ITEM	VALUE (£)
House and any other property
Bank Account(s)
Building Society Account(s)
Investments Stocks and shares
Life insurance Premium bonds
Any money you are owed
Business assets
Cars, etc.
Furniture/household possessions
Other assets
Total A

What you owe. This could include:

ITEM	VALUE (£)
Outstanding mortgage
Other loans
Overdraft
Credit card balance
Other money owed
Total B

Simply take Total B from Total A. The result is the net value of what you can leave.

	VALUE (£)
Total A
Total B
Net total value of your estate

Notes:

Family & Friends First

Now you know what you have to leave, you can use this list to write down names and details. You can give a specific item or amount of money to each person, or a percentage of everything you own. You can complete your form before or after you chat to your solicitor.

How To Hints

YOUR EXECUTORS — THE PEOPLE WHO WILL MAKE IT HAPPEN

You can have up to four executors to deal with your wishes. These could be friends, family, or a professional such as your solicitor. Whoever you choose, ensure you ask their permission. Make a note of your executor(s) below.

APPOINTING GUARDIANS

If you have children, this is probably one of your major motivations for writing a Will in the first place. Discuss your wishes with the people you wish to appoint to ensure they agree. Again, note down their names in the space below.

CHOOSE A SOLICITOR

The best way to find a reliable solicitor is word of mouth. A recommendation from a friend is always useful. Or take a look online. There are lots of websites that will list solicitors in your area.

The Law Society is a good place to start. Click the 'Find a Solicitor' button, then enter your postcode into the form, and then Wills and Probate from the drop down list of 'specialisms'.

Leaving a Gift to Veterans at Ease
